Broaden your horizons with Orion – the new Compact Caravan Range

A vehicle designed to allow you to get the most from the great outdoors Orion is a new type of caravan. Easy to drive, easy to park and easy to store it offers you the flexibility of use as a mobile base from which you can enjoy your chosen leisure activity.

It is built using the same high performance Alu-Tech construction system featured in the other Bailey ranges and also includes a GRP outer skin for extra durability. This provides the vehicle with numerous benefits of ownership most notably a market leading ten year body shell integrity guarantee* for additional peace of mind with your new caravan purchase.

*Terms and conditions apply. 10-Year integrity guarantee comprises of 6 years standard warranty cover and 4 years extended warranty cover supplied free of charge. Please visit www.baileyorion.co.uk for more information on the Pegasus warranty package

The compact exterior disguises spacious interiors which include everything you will need for anything from a weekend break to an extended holiday. Clever use of space means the popular layouts found in larger and heavier caravans can feature in this four model range accommodating from two to five people in complete comfort.

As well as being supplied with all the facilities you would expect in a modern caravan, including fully equipped kitchens and washrooms, Orion also includes a number of luxuries, such as a micro wave oven and a branded Radio/CD/MP3 player with stereo speakers, which are only normally found in more expensive models. In short you will be totally self-contained.

So if you've never considered a touring home before why not broaden your horizons by looking at the new Bailey Orion – a compact, affordable vehicle that will be all the caravan you will ever need.
